

Car Seat and Portable Crib Program

Congratulations! We hear you're expecting. We encourage you to see your Obstetric (OB) Provider* to begin prenatal visits as soon as you become pregnant.

If you are a Blue Cross Community CentennialSM member who is pregnant, you can receive a car seat and portable crib from Blue Cross and Blue Shield of New Mexico (BCBSNM) at no charge.

How to Get the Car Seat

To get the car seat, you will need to:

- Participate in the Special Beginnings[®] maternity program; there is no charge to participate in this program.
- See your OB Provider for 8 prenatal visits.

How to Get the Portable Crib

To get the crib, you will need to:

- Participate in the Special Beginnings maternity program.
- Visit your OB provider for your first prenatal visit in the 1st trimester or within 42 days of enrollment in Blue Cross Community Centennial.
- Call BCBSNM at 888-421-7781 (TTY: 711) to learn more about the Safe Sleep Program.

Keep track of your visits on this form. Once complete, you (or your OB Provider) need to fax the form to 505-816-3854. If you cannot fax the form or have questions, call BCBSNM Special Beginnings at 888-421-7781. If you are speech- or hearing-impaired, call 711 for TTY service.

*An OB provider is your maternity provider.

Receipt of car seat and portable crib is a value-added service through BCBSNM.
