PART D: Why you want your records shared

- The first box tells us to give out your records as shown on this form.
- The second box tells us a special reason. This could be talking about a life insurance claim. This might be with a lawyer or family member. Write your reason in the space.

PART E: Review and sign

- Once you sign the form, it will be good for one of the following amounts of time:
  - Check the first box for one year. That's the normal time.
  - Check the second box to say the form you sign will be good for less than a year. Then give the date you want it to end.
- Sign your name and put the date on the form. Your name and signature must match what you wrote in PART A.
- You may be signing this form for someone else. If you have forms that say you have Power of Attorney for health care, or are a legal guardian or conservator, you must do this:
  - o Fill in Named Legal Person or Guardian.
  - o Give us a copy of the legal form that shows you have Power of Attorney. Put it in with this form.

Here are samples of legal forms. These are used when a person needs someone else to make choices for them.

- Health Care, General, or Durable Power of Attorney. This form gives someone the legal power to act for you. This person can make health care choices for you. It might say this on the form: "to take charge of my person in the case of sickness of any kind." It may also say this "and in general to do and act for me and in my name all that I might do if I am not there."
- Legal Guardianship. This is when the court names someone to care for a person.
- Conservatorship. This happens when a judge names a person to be in charge. This would be when a person can't make choices for him or herself.
- Executor of estate. This type of form would be used when the person who is being spoken for has died.
